

Week 25

Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. Ephesians 6:4

Fathers, do not provoke your children lest they become discouraged. Colossians 3:21

You then, my child, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. 2 Timothy 2:1-2

Day 1 - Pray that God shows your husband how to be a good father (whether he is a father now, later, or to the young ones he comes into contact). Pray that God answers his questions and reveals to him who he is as a follower of Christ and God's purpose for him.

Day 2 - Pray that God teaches him to discipline wisely rather than punish and to love ALL of God's children unconditionally no matter the hurt or pain or grief they may cause him.

Day 3 - Pray that God gives you the ability love your children and your husband unconditionally as God loves you. Ask Him to reveal His purpose to you as well and to give you the ability to work alongside your husband teaching your children their purpose in Christ, what it is to be a child of God, and speaking His purpose into their lives.

Day 4 - Pray that God gives your husband the wisdom and knowledge in how to mentor his children in the ways of God and give them the desire to want Biblical insight as they try to discover their own identities in Christ. Lead him to discuss with them goals, visions, and be able to share with them what it is to be a man of God.

Day 5 - Pray that God gives him understanding in what it is to be a man created for a purpose and be able to pass that on to your children and the other children God puts in his path. Help him to speak that purpose into these children as God reveals it to your husband.
