Abigail's Testimony

“If I could summarize my canvassing experience, I’d say I expected great things and God gave great things.”

While canvassing one summer day, I faced rejection from two stores, which left me disheartened. Undeterred, I decided to revisit a Panda Express, despite having canvassed it thrice before. Acting on what I believe was a divine prompting, I approached the cashier, who directed me to the manager. Showing him a book titled “In Search Of Peace,” he revealed that his wife had received it from me earlier, leading to positive changes in their family dynamics. The manager encouraged his co-worker to purchase the book, emphasizing its transformative impact. Grateful for the evident purpose in my presence, I left with renewed confidence that the literature I distributed could bring people closer to Jesus, changing lives by God’s grace.

Carlos' Testimony

“Canvassing transformed my life and touched countless others this summer. Meeting people hungry for truth, I encountered a man with a turbulent past – a brain tumor, substance abuse, and prison time. Despite rejecting Jesus for years, he felt compelled to attend church after his release. Sharing ‘In Search of Peace’ and ‘God’s Answers,’ I witnessed his gratitude for the books. Through canvassing, I’ve seen the profound impact our literature can have, offering hope for a better lifestyle. Praise the Lord for the opportunity to be part of a program that blesses lives!”
